

Revising & Organizing for Grad Students & Postdocs

Wednesday, October 21
Noon- 1:30pm
126 Voorhies

Many scholars struggle with the process of revision and organization! Mastering these skills is an essential process for writing success as a graduate student or postdoctoral scholar. This 90 minute workshop will examine strategies for effectively revising and organizing your writing for dissertations, journal articles, proposals, etc. and help you gain both expertise and confidence in the process.

Workshop Leader: Sarah Perrault, Ph.D., University Writing Program

*This workshop is part of the Professional Development Series
