

Translating the Advanced Degree: Transferable Skills Workshop

Monday, October 19, 2009
Noon - 1:30pm
Room 114, South Hall

Every graduate student and postdoctoral scholar has a wealth of skills that can be transferred outside of academia. Join us for this interactive workshop/ discussion to help you identify what these skills are and how they can be your ticket to many different types of exciting career opportunities beyond academia.

Even if you do not plan to leave academia, you will want to take stock of the many skills and abilities you've developed as a graduate student or postdoc.
